

Redfield/Doland Crushes Northwestern

by Angel Levtzow, sophomore

The Northwestern Wildcats boys' basketball team visited the Redfield gym on February 17 to play the Pheasants at a nonconference game. The Pheasants started out the game with a huge lead and by the end of the first quarter the score is 19-2. The second quarter also went well for the Pheasants, giving away no points in this quarter. The score was 38-2 by halftime.

When the Pheasants got into the third quarter, they continued to play hard and started to work in more JV players. Ending the third quarter 57-7, the Wildcats gained only five points. By the end of the fourth quarter all JV were playing and beat the Wildcats in the quarter, 18-10. The final score for the whole game was 75-17.

The leading scorer for this game was junior, Bradyn

Binger, scoring 21 points. Following Binger was Ephram Albrecht with 14 points. Both Kyle Stover and Carter Klapperich had a total of 4 steals. Leading the night in rebounds was Bradyn Binger with 10 rebounds, followed by Kyle Stover and Collin Klebsch, both with 4.

Carter Klapperich, Junior, drives to the land to shoot a basket.