

Klebsch and Gillette Rule over Homecoming Festivities

by Kesha Arthurs and Nicolette Schmidt

A new king and queen were crowned on the first night of Homecoming week. Everyone gathered in the Greeno building for the special ceremony where Collin Klebsch and Kate Gillette were chosen by a vote of the student body to rule over the Homecoming festivities.

King Collin Klebsch and Queen Kate Gillette

Other candidates included: Chaley Bowar, Brooklyn Rohlfs, Sarah Rozell, Nikiah Whitley, Bradyn Binger, Carter Klapperich, Caleb McNeil, and Taylor Shantz.

Serving as MC's for the night was junior class president Kevin Krumm and the junior class vice president Nicolette Schmidt. The 25 (Casey Fey) and 50 (Chris Esser) year kings were in attendance. The Alumni speaker was Melinda (Cleberg) Fey, who talked about the meaning of Homecoming and what the purpose of Homecoming is.

After King Collin and Queen Kate were crowned, the cheerleaders led the school song and everyone proceeded outside for the burning of the "R". Homecoming activities will include Pride Day on Wednesday, a pep assembly at 12:30 on Friday, and the Homecoming parade at 2:00 on Friday. The football game will begin at 7:00 against the Sisseton Redmen.