

Senior Spotlight: Jordanne Howe

by Julia Schmitt, sophomore

Jordanne Howe, daughter of Lance and Shirley Howe, was born on August 13th, 1996. She has one sibling, Dalton Howe, who is a 14-year-old freshman.

Extra-curricular activities that Jordanne is involved in include: basketball, FFA, National Honor Society, Student Council, 4-H, volunteer basketball coach, and volunteer basketball referee. In the free time not taken up by those activities, she also enjoys going to sporting events and spending time with friends and family.

Jordanne has received several accomplishments over her high school years. In FFA she has received 1st place in job interview and meats judging. Her entire team also won state in agronomy judging. They also placed at state in prepared public speaking. Howe also got selected at District VI for FFA vice president and Washington Leadership Conference Scholarship Recipient. Jordanne is on the honor roll and has received the RHS Academic Achievement Award for three years in a row. Along with RHS academic achievement, she has received RDHS Junior Varsity Most Valuable Player.

Last but not least, Jordanne has accomplished many things in 4-H. She was selected to serve as the South Dakota State 4-H Youth Council Secretary. Howe also participated in the 1st place team at the National Home site Judging Contest. She has received the “I Dare You” Award, the Outstanding Leadership Award and also the Citizen Washington Focus Delegate.

When Jordanne was younger she wanted to be an Orthopedic Surgeon, but her current plans after high school are to go to SDSU and major in Agronomy. When asked where she sees herself in 10 years she said, “Wherever my future takes me; it’s hard to tell at this point.”

Although everyone’s high school years are filled with lots of memories, Jordanne’s favorite memory is her senior year Homecoming. The thing she will miss most about high school is time spent in the senior room. After Jordanne graduates, she would like to be remembered as someone who will never give up and is always willing to help. She also wants to be remembered as someone who always had a smile on her face.
