

Senior Spotlight: Matthew Collins

by Hailey Wacholz

Matthew Ryan Collins was born on December 20 to Nova Collins. The extra-curricular activity he participates in includes football. His accomplishments include signing with Dakota Wesleyan University and All Conference honorable mention. His hobbies include football and sleep.

When he was younger he wanted to be a fireman. He sees himself in ten years having a job. His favorite memory from high school was going to the quarter-semifinals in football. He will miss his classmates the most from high school. When asked how he wants to be remembered after he graduates Matthew replied, "As a smart, caring individual who only wants to see people exceed in life."
