

ORAL INTERP

BY JAKOB THOMAS

On Tuesday November 17, members of the RHS 2016 oral interp team traveled to Aberdeen to compete in the Region IV Oral Interp Competition.

Bryce Knigge, Cami Knigge, David Kastner, Jakob Thomas, Julie Tebben and Terri Baker competed at the contest, which was held at the Ramada Inn.

There were six total teams in the Readers Theater category. The Redfield group presented a skit about communication – or miscommunication - with phones and social media.

The selection, "Is Anybody Listening?" was written and arranged by sophomore David Kastner. According to Kastner, "Oral Interp was really fun this year, and it was fun watching all of the other teams compete and do great jobs in their categories."

Terri Baker also competed in the Serious Prose category. Her piece was entitled "19 Minutes" by Jodi Picoult.
