

Boys Golf Season Ends at Region Tourney

---

by Julia Schmitt, sophomore

On Monday, September 29, five boys competed at the region golf meet. Gabe Suchor finished with a 106. Bryce Stephens finished with a 103. Ryan Yost finished with a 112. Adam Hyke finished with a 122, and Thad Tschetter finished with a 126.

In other action, the boy's golf team traveled to the annual Madison Invite. The four students who went were Bryce Stephens, Gabe Suchor, Thad Tschetter and Adam Hyke. The final scores were Bryce with 102, Gabe with 108, and Adam with 133.

Ryan Yost concentrates on his shot at the Redfield Invite.

On Saturday, September 13 the team traveled to Groton Area. Bryce Stephens finished with a 111. Gabe Suchor finished with 100. Ryan Yost finished with 104.

Next on the calendar for the boys was the JV Redfield invite. The junior varsity boys who placed at the invite were Bennett Osborn, Ethan DeYoung, and Adam Hyke. Bennett finished with a 112. Ethan finished with a 117, and Adam finished with a 118.

At the Milbank POET Suchor scored a 104. Yost scored a 109. And Stephens scored a 118. One of the first meets was the Sioux valley invite which was August 18. At the Sioux Valley Invite, Suchor finished with a 98, Bryce with a 100, and Ryan with a 114.

When asked about his opinion of this golf season Carter Wagner said "Golf was a great year. We gained a lot of experience. With more practice we'll get better and have more opportunities to make it to state."

Gabe Suchor added, "This year we have gone a long way, but we have farther to go next year."