

Gone But Still Giving, Logan Lives On

Pheasants and Jackrabbits Will Come Together to Celebrate the Life of Logan Klebsch

by Zoe Cosato, senior editor

On February 5, at the Redfield High School gym, the community will come together to celebrate the life of the always-smiling, basketball loving, SDSU number one fan sixth grader, Logan Klebsch. Logan lost his life in a tragic ATV accident on September 1, 2014.

Logan was always a born basketball fan, well known for always asking his mother for just a few more minutes on the court, just one more time. In honor of Logan's immense love of the sport, Redfield will come together one more time to celebrate the one-of-a-kind Klebsch. The celebration will take place at the Redfield/Doland Boys' Basketball Game against Clark/Willow Lake. At the Redfield game, attendees will be able to meet "Jack the Rabbit", watch SDSU cheer and dance performances, enjoy "World famous" SDSU ice cream, and enjoy blue and yellow cotton candy in addition to everything else an RHS boys' basketball game has to offer.

Even a stranger to Logan could easily pick up on his cheerful attitude, never ending smiles, and immense love of sports. Logan gave everyone the motivation they needed on and off the court with his infectious inspiration and friendly attitude.

Even though Logan is gone, he is still giving through the lives of the people he touched.

Everyone from teammates to teachers, peers to parents, best friends to big brother could tell you what a truly incredible and kind person Logan was. True to his kind nature, the game at RHS will also feature the "Samaritan Feet Fundraiser." For every pair of shoes that is donated to the Samaritan Feet Fundraiser, the contributor will receive a coupon for a free bag of popcorn. All the shoes donated will go to Coach Nagy's cause. Logan always wanted to be an SDSU Jackrabbit, so participants will be asked to wear blue and yellow, a Logan Klebsch T-Shirt, or some SDSU apparel. Gone but still giving, Logan lives on.
