

Senior Spotlight: Duncan Schwartz

by Hailey Wacholz, sophomore

Duncan Harper Schwartz was born on December 21st, to Todd and Nancy Schwartz. Duncan has one brother named Alec Hudson.

The extra-curricular activities Duncan participates in include band, chorus, and jazz band. Schwartz's accomplishments are being accepted into the South Dakota Honor Choir twice and the South Dakota All State Chorus three times; he's received no lower than a 1 rating on all contest solos and ensembles, and he was accepted into the NCACDA Regional Honor Choir. His hobbies include music, Netflix, and Youtube.

When Duncan was younger he said he wanted to be a chef, a writer, a game designer, a psychiatrist, anything you could think of. Now Duncan said he will attend SDSU for Music Education, to focus on vocal instruction. In ten years Duncan sees himself direction a choir in a larger town and probably looking towards his Masters or Doctorate.

When Duncan was asked what his favorite memory of high school was he said, "The many ridiculous nights spent at Samantha Schilling's house." What he will miss most about high school is the few influential teachers he's had, the friends he won't see as much, and the M&Ms from Mrs. Lunstrum. When asked how he wanted to be remembered Duncan said, "I suppose it doesn't matter to me, just as long as no one thinks badly of me, I'm happy."
