

Senior Spotlight: Marlee Mack

by Hailey Wacholz

Marlee Anne Mack was born on October 18 to Hugh and Cari Mack. Marlee has five siblings named, Molly, Murphy, Maddie, Miranda, and Mitchell.

The extra-curricular activities Marlee participates in include: volleyball, FBLA, NHS, golf, band, and choir. Mack's accomplishments are NHS President, co-captain of the Varsity volleyball team, went to Allstate chorus for three years, ranked 1st in the senior class, and Homecoming Queen. Her hobbies include spending time with friends and family, traveling, reading, eating, golfing, and laughing.

When Marlee was younger she wanted to be a chef with her own restaurant or cooking show. After she graduates she is going to attend South Dakota State University for Pre-Law. In ten years Marlee sees herself done with college, working a good job that she loves, married, and happy.

Marlee's favorite memory from high school was spending time with her classmates and laughing a lot. She says they always found a way to have a good time, even in boring situations. When asked what she will miss most about high school Marlee said, "I will miss feeling comfortable and familiar with my surroundings at all times. Senior year has really taught me that knowing everyone around you and being comfortable isn't always a bad thing, but I am excited to start a new chapter in my life."

When Marlee graduates she wants to be remembered as a person who is a nice, fun person that people always felt comfortable around.
